

CLICK HERE TO START PLANNING YOUR UK TEACHING ADVENTURE

Let's talk UK pension schemes

The short answer is no. Once you start teaching you will get the opportunity to opt out of a UK Workers Pension Scheme. You will need to decide what is right for you. Read about the pros and cons of paying into a UK pension scheme.

Read our latest blog outlining your options and make sure you get in touch if you have a question.

The Pros and Cons of paying into a UK Workplace Pension Blog

The pros and cons of paying into a UK Workplace Pension

Spotlight on Brighton

How does living on the south coast of England in a vibey city, one hour from London and less than 30 minutes on the train to Gatwick airport?

Maybe living and teaching in Brighton is for you?

Every year we have teachers contact us because of our large Brighton branch and the work options available in the city that is too cool for it's own good.

If you love music, nightlife, art and the ocean, Brighton is for you. If you like countryside, park and shopping, Brighton is also for you.

Hear from the Brighton team and find out if Brighton is right for you.

London Slang- read up before you go with some help from Idris Elba.

London is home to over 300 different languages and over 60% of people who live in London come from outside the capital originally. That is what makes it the most exciting place to live and work.

Before you arrive, we have found a video by Idris Elba that will help you to understand what the locals are saying.

Check out our new blog:

London Slang- 10 ways to fit in when you get off the plane

Learn London Slang with Idris

LET TEACH IN HELP YOU PLAN YOUR UK TEACHING EXPERIENCE

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER YOUR INTEREST

