Introducing Katharine Hearn

We wanted to give a shout out to the fabulous, Katharine Hearn. Our teachers all rave about the support and genuine care they receive from Katharine, based out of our London office. Katharine has decades of experience supporting teachers into schools and she heads up our overseas teacher community. Katharine helps you get ready to interview, holds your hand in the early days when you arrive in London and Charlee and Katharine (pictured left) arrange and attend all our Overseas Teacher Networking Events.

What are our teachers saying!

Talking of our Overseas Teacher Networking Events, we recently asked some Aussie teachers about their experience with us and about starting at their new schools in London or the home counties.

You'll find it useful to hear first hand how they have found getting to the UK, getting set up and starting in their school. They talk about their challenges but they are all happy to be living and working in or around the capital!

Surviving and Thriving in the UK as a Beginning Teacher

Every year we support hundreds of Aussie, New Zealand and Canadian teachers into permanent, fixed-term and guaranteed supply contracts in schools across England and many are straight out of university. We make sure we support our new graduates with 1:1 attention from their local and UK Consultants and we also make sure early career teachers have a UK Mentor in their school.
