Book a call about 2026 Teaching Jobs

If you have any interest in exploring UK teaching opportunities in 2026, the first step is to book a call with either Emma or Katherine. We are always happy to have a chat. Booking a call at a time that suits, is your way to ask the questions that are specific to your situation and to find out if teaching in the UK is right for you. We will cover your UK working rights, where you can work, at what times of the year you can go and what to expect in terms of pay and transitional support. Hope to hear from you. Its obligation free.

Special Needs Opportunities

In January 2025, there were over 1.7 million school pupils in England with identified SEN (19.6% of all pupils). Of these pupils with identified SEN, around 1.3 million receive SEN Support, and around 0.5 million have Education, Health, and Care plans. If you are planning to teach in the UK, we will offer you lots of professional development to help you transition into your school.
